BUCKET CARRIES AWAY CHAMPION FINE WOOL CROSS IN JUNIOR MARKET

LAMB SHOW AT HOUSTON — MARCH 18, 2004 — HOUSTON — FOR IMMEDIATE

RELEASE — Bucket carried away Champion Fine Wool Cross in the Junior Market Lamb Show on March 18 at the 2004 Houston Livestock Show™. Katlin Horwood, 15, of Sterling City, Texas, showed the lamb.

The judge was Todd Wise of Keenesburg, Colo.

“This lamb is admirable in the touch and handle, with correct natural thickness,” Wise said.

Katlin, son of Lonnie and Dolores Horwood, said that he felt, “Good! Great! I wasn’t expecting to win.”

Katlin has shown sheep and steers for six years. The FFA member and Bucket also won grand champion at San Antonio this year.

Reserve Champion went to Book, owned by Logan Cordes, 18, of Menard, Texas. The Menard County 4-H’er started showing 12 years ago because, “I wanted to meet people and have fun.”

Wise said that Book “is a tremendously powerful and nicely balanced individual.”

Logan, son of Richard and Janis Cordes, also shows sheep, pigs and heifers.
